Dear Mr. Rutah,

We thank you for joining in our recent Partners in Progress Campaign and for your generous contribution of $500.00 dated 6/2/2010.

Contributions, such as that from Entel Systems, Inc., help support UCP/NYC's extensive network of more than 75 individual programs serving 14,000 children and adults with disabilities and their families. I am pleased to report that this year, a very substantial portion of the contributions raised through the Partners in Progress Campaign is being used to pay for essential home modifications to help people with disabilities and the frail elderly to remain in the homes and avoid unnecessary nursing home or institutional placements. This service is of vital importance to the New York City community and we are proud to be able to provide it with your support.

On behalf of all of us here at UCP of New York City, I thank you again for your generous gift.

Sincerely,

Edward R. Matthews
Chief Executive Officer

The fair market value of the goods and services you received in relation to your gift is $0. The tax deductible portion of your gift is therefore $500.00.

With the exception of any value of benefits you have accepted in relation to your gift, noted above, the balance of your contribution is tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. We recommend that you keep this letter as acknowledgment of your gift.
